kitchen and glassware and a health and beauty aid department. The store will occupy 30,260 square feet, almost twice the size of the present store.

Mr. William Spann will continue to be our local manager. Before coming to Carmel, Mr. Spann managed the Winchester Blvd., Campbell, Safeway Store. He began his career with Safeway in 1948.

Sixteen supermarkets operated by Safeway in the cities of Salinas, Carmel, Carmel Valley, Marina, Pacific Grove, Seaside, Monterey, Gilroy, Santa Cruz, Watsonville, Felton, Aptos and King City were closed from November 26 through November 28th at which time they were converted to discount stores. Thousands of prices have been lowered and the issuance of trading stamps has been discontinued.

FIRE

Five fire fighting units and 19 Carmel Volunteer Firemen answered a call Monday evening at 11:01 and extinguished the blaze at the southwest corner of Casanova and 10th.

One bedroom, living room and hall were destroyed. The fire fighting team reported back to the station house at 12:45.

There will be a registrar at the Pine Cone from 10:00 to 12:00 Saturday in event you wish to register to VOTE.

LA PLAYA HOSTS TOURNEY AT CV CLUB

The 1st Annual Don Sherwood Invitational Golf Tournament will get off to a shot-gun blast start Friday morning at the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club, and over 120 amateurs will compete for such prizes as a trip to New York City . . . a week's vacation in Porta Vallarte, Mexico, a two year lease on a new automobile, and other attractive awards.

The 18-hole tournament requires a $50 entry fee with proceeds going to the National Aid to the Visually Handicapped (NAVH). NAVH aids the handicapped by providing books in Braille and in large print.

A long list of celebrities will be on the fairways of the Country Club, including Willie Mays, Joe DiMaggio, Jim Davenport, Ernie Nevers, Hugh McElhenny, as well as Don Sherwood, San Francisco's most popular radio personality. KSFO will broadcast the Don Sherwood show from the La Playa, beginning at 6:00 a.m. At 9:00 Sherwood's companion Carter B. Smith will broadcast his show from the hotel and at 5:45 Lon Simmons will air his sports show from the La Playa.

High City Salaries

Dr. Marvin Steckler went through a long list of statistics last night at the City Council meeting, all of which pointed up the sharp increase in City salaries over the past nine years.

The following are some interesting observations made by the consultant:

The average City employee earns $619.22 each month.

The percentage of increase in salaries was more than twice the cost of living . . . more than the budget . . . more than benefits to the city . . . more than property taxes.

In the past ten years, the city employees' salary has risen 63%.

"Salaries are not even in the ball park with the benefits to the City," Dr. Steckler said.

Hugh Bayless theorized that the reason the cost is so out of proportion to bene-

SIGNS

In a town where signs are hard to get approved, it seems strange that two signs advertising the same function are located side by side.

The Cultural Commission last Monday was reminded that it would take "an act from the City Council" to remove one of the two Forest Theatre signs at the corner of Ocean and Junipero. The commission indicated it felt that one Forest Theatre sign was enough, and it would rather replace that sign with one directing people to Sunset Center. Hugh Bayless said the sign was erected because of one of the City Councilmen's plea that the existing sign could not be seen well enough and another was needed.

The lively cast of UP WITH PEOPLE swings into action in one of the new songs to be heard in the performances at Sunset Auditorium, Thursday and Friday evenings, December 7 and 8 at 8:15.

NOTE TO THE PLANNING COMMISSION

Commission should know the letter it directed Attorney William Burleigh to draft concerning Holiday Inn's advertising itself as being located in "Carmel-by-the-Sea" was quickly acted upon. On the billboards advertising Holiday Inn, the signs now read located in "Carmel."

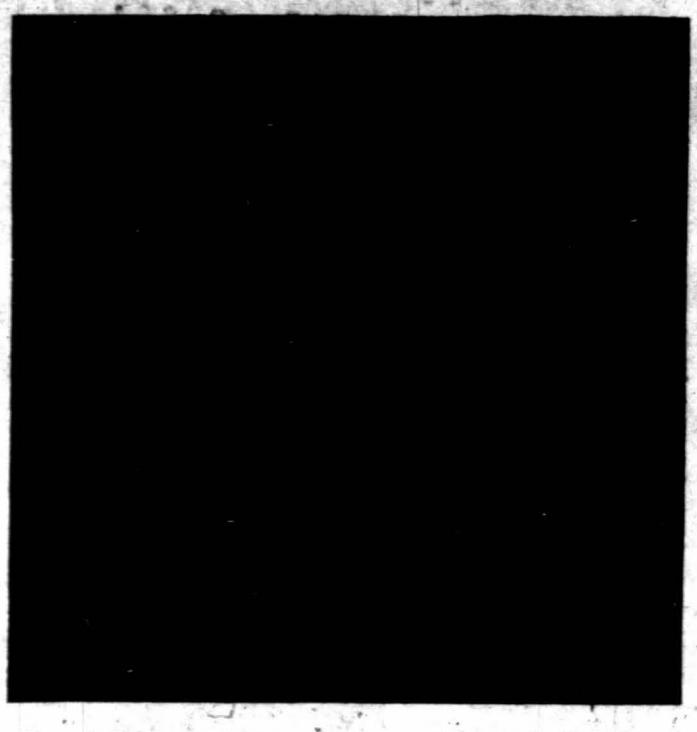
WEATHER

Shortly after 9 a.m. this morning a "big" wind came through Carmel and disrupted power in parts of the City. The Pine Cone was without electricity for more than an hour and when a staff member confronted the local PG&E office 30 minutes after the failure, PG&E representatives still were not aware of the source which caused the power failure. Hail nipped at people's ankles as they hurried for cover.



One of the foremost young sopranos in America will share the stage with the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra and conductor Jan deJong when they present their second concert of the season on December 5th in Carmel's Sunset Auditorium.

Leona Gordon has appeared with most of the leading West Coast symphony orchestras as well as the Salt Lake Oratorio Society, the Honolulu Symphony Orchestra, at the Redlands Bowl Music Festival, and with the Memphis Symphony. She will be seen on the KNBC Christmas Special with Carmen Dragon and the Glendale Symphony late this month.

Her December 5th concert with the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra will include Dvorak's "Song to the Moon" from "Rusalka", arias from "La Traviata" by Verdi and Charpentier's "Louise", and the recitative and aria from "L'Enfant Prodigue" by Debussy.

Theatre Review

BONNIE AND CLYDE, in this film the couple who became celebrated bank robbers and killers during the depression, Arthur Penn has told their story in such a way that it becomes something of a pastorate, the two principles never being alienated from society but bent on crime and violence.

"THE TAMING OF THE SHREW", a comedy by Shakespeare, has had audiences laughing for almost 400 years. The shrew is evil-tempered Katharina. In the motion picture version, Elizabeth Taylor is the shrew. And the man who tames her, Petruchio, is played by Richard Burton.

DR. ZHIVAGO. The screen version of Pasternak's novel, has a script by Robert Bolt but while beautiful and long, it lacks dramatic vitality. Also prominent in this romantic drama set before background of the Russian revolution are Ralph Richardson and Ron Steiger. Many of the scenes are visually breathtaking.

TO SIR, WITH LOVE reminds you of what really warm good movies are like. It is a beautiful movie and perfect from top to bottom with a lot of mod action.

Philip Burton At MPC

"An Evening With Philip Burton"—Friday, Dec. 1—will bring to the Monterey Peninsula College lecture stage one of the most distinguished men of the theater and also—incidentally—the foster-father of actor Richard Burton.

Burton, a noted director and actor of distinction, will address a National Guard Armory audience at 8 p.m.

"THE MISER"

Moliere's "The Miser," one of the 17th Century French playwright's best-known plays, will be staged by Morgan Stock and his Monterey Peninsula College Players Nov. 30, Dec. 1 and 2 and 6 through 9.

Curtain time each evening in the MPC Little Theater on Campus will be 8:30.

MPC drama student Ron Guillemette plays the leading role of Harpagon. Nick Hovick, well known for his many starring roles in the Peninsula's little theaters, playes Jacques, Harpagon's cook and coachman; and Anita Whitaker, also familiar to local theater-goers, is Frosine, "a woman of intrigue."

CLOSE DOWN U.C.?

San Francisco Examiner columnist Guy Wright has made a Swiftian "modest proposal" that since the University of California at Berkeley "has ceased to operate as a university" about the only thing to do is close the campus, send everyone home.

Implementing his non-university charge, Wright says that "at its simplest a university is a place where the young go to learn from the old," on the presumption that "there are some things the young don't know, and that their elders know something worth learning." Above all, he adds, a university is a place "where ideas are examined on their merits, where no idea is simply shouted down."

Wright's clincher is that the "trust no one over 30" minority has taken over, that they decide what goes. And they have the support of an appreciable sector of the faculty.

The Wright proposal for a shutdown is perhaps a bit extreme, as it was no doubt meant to be. A simpler solution is to enforce the University's own laws.

The other day 22 professors admitted they had taken part in unauthorized campus rallies, and demanded that they be punished along with the students. Great. Punish student and prof alike, when they break the rules. Quit horsing around. Quit pampering the peach-fuzzed dissenters. Let disagreement be heard, but hold to the laws and rules that make a university a university, not a staging ground for the lawless.

Cultural Commission Considers Rezoning

The public hearings which have been held recently on rezoning Sunset Center finally had an effect on at least one Cultural Commission member who Monday night suggested that the commission review their recommendation to the City Council that the North playground be turned into off street parking.

Captain Frank Falge said he attended these public hearings and realized that there were a number of people who were "violently" against resurfacing the playground. He suggested that the commission, who originally encouraged the council to consider the parking lot, reverse their stand. After considerable discussion on the matter, Commissioner Robert Evans, Sr. said, "It's past us now," and the remainder of the commissioners agreed that it was a little late. Dr. James Gilman, chairman, indicated that he felt that those people who spoke at the Council and Planning Commission public hearings were "opposed because of their sentiment" toward the subject.

The Commission then heard from a representative from the Monterey Peninsula Choral Group who made a plea to the Commission for co-sponsorship of the Christmas Oratorio. For the past five years the program has been presented at the Carmel Mission but that will be impossible this year. The commission decided against the co-sponsorship but did give a reduced rate for rental of the auditorium.

Because the Commission does not have a firm policy on determining what organization should or should not be co-sponsored, Cole Weston was asked to research this question. Meanwhile, the Scottish Country Dance Group has been allowed to use the Cafeteria for free dance classes every Monday night until a policy has been investigated and determined.

Before the Commission adjourned, Dr. Gilman again suggested that Kiosks be erected to attract visitors to Sunset Center. He seconded his own motion to present a sketch and idea of kiosks to the Planning Commission, and ask them to put money in the budget for next year. Gilman said that each of the members of the design review board of the Planning Commission indicated that they would like such a thing.

THEATER REVUE

MORE THAN A MIRACLE is a romantic comedy. Sharif is a prince who has the world at his feet but chooses rather to place himself at the feet of Miss Loren who is a modest, well perhaps that is not the right word, peasant girl. The film was produced by Sophia's husband, Carlo Ponti, and includes several elegant renaissance sets.

WAR GAMES. It may be the most important film ever made. We are always being told a work of art cannot change the course of history. This one might. It's fascinating . . . graphic . . . horrifying . . . fearful and forceful. Eminently worth seeing. The cast is exceptional ly fine.

POINT BLANK. The forbidding "menace" of Alcatraz rubbed off on the cast and crew when MGM spent five days filming scenes at the former Federal Penitentiary for this taut and suspenseful drama. Luggage mysteriously disappeared, a girl fell overboard, a dog attacked a crew member and a star was accidently shot in the right hand.

FAMILY WAY, sensitive, compassionate treatment of newlyweds' temporary inability to consummate their marriage.

BEACH RED, the film covers a single campaign by a unit ordered to take a Japanese Island in the Pacific during World War II (although no actual date is mentioned) and the cast includes Rip Torn and Jean Wallace.

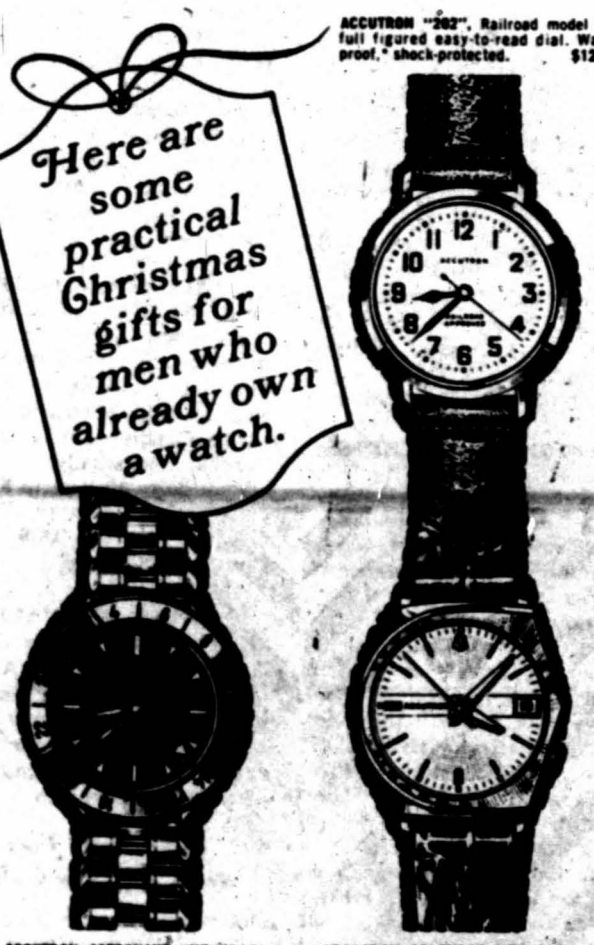
Here are some practical Christmas gifts for men who already own a watch.



ACCUTRON "202", Railroad model with full figured easy-to-read dial. Water proof,* shock-protected. $125.00

ACCUTRON ASTRONAUT "S" Waterproof,* sweep second hand, rotating 24 hour bezel, 24 hour indicator, black luminous dial and hands. All stainless steel. $170.00

ACCUTRON CALENDAR "2" 14K gold, waterproof,* sweep second hand, calendar window. Silver or gilt dial. Luminous dots and hands. Rust alligator strap. $225.00

The gifts above look like watches, but that's where the resemblance ends.

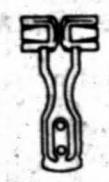
They are Accutron® timepieces.

Watches have a balance wheel, a hairspring and a mainspring. And these mechanical watch parts may have trouble keeping the right time.

The Accutron movement does not depend on watchworks. Instead, an electronic-powered tuning fork keeps time through vibrations. And it keeps the right time. In fact, we guarantee monthly accuracy within 60 seconds.† (And we know Accutron owners who say their timepiece is accurate to within 60 seconds a year.)

It doesn't surprise us.

But it will surprise the men on your Christmas list. Particularly, if they already own a watch.



The old-fashioned balance wheel principle is used in all watches, not the Accutron movement. The Accutron tuning fork makes possible the first guarantee of accuracy ever given.

CITIZENS INTERESTED IN CITY GOVERNMENT

Dear Mr. Editor,

My impression on Sunset School is awfully bad. I do not believe that it should be used as studios and workshops. I think the classrooms should be torn down and the auditorium be saved for use of concerts, festivals and other cultural things like these.

If Carmel is building and remodeling new stores to make Carmel look better, why don't we do the same with Sunset School. I think the mayor should take these things into mind.

Yours truly,
Mary Fielding
Age 11
Franciscan Way,
Carmel

Editor,
The Carmel Pine Cone

Here are some facts, gleaned from forty years experience with the Performing Arts, and nearly thirty-five years close association with Sunset:

The North playfield is designated as a City Playground on the City's Master Plan, adopted Feb. 4, 1959. Item No. 6, Page 22, of our City's 1967-68 Budget is $2000 to pave the Sunset "North Parking Lot", meaning, of course, our neglected Public Playground. This budget and the Master Plan are available for all to see.

As a bona fide member of the Sunset Commission, I contacted the School System, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Youth Center, known youth leaders, our own Fire Department, etc. etc., and found many people who were looking forward to the expected City re-furbishment, and who expressed themselves as wanting to use this playfield. The Sunset Commission agreed, reluctantly, to try the playfield for a limited time, but the program was allowed to die when I left the Commission to fight first-hand the proposed bulldozing of Sunset, and the proposed five-million dollar replacement, by a well meaning, but totally unprepared, non-profit corporation. In the meantime, the North Playfield has not had five-cents spent on it, and has been used for a City Dump. It has been, and is, a total disgrace to the City of Carmel.

It was apparent when we bought Sunset that it was impractical without a major tenant. The major tenants so far, endlessly discussed, have been, a non-profit corporation, the establishment of the "Juilliard of the West", the Library, the Post Office, and our own City Offices. It takes no time at all, if you know the full story, to prove that the City is its own best prospect for a major tenant.

A move of City Hall to Sunset will free the present City Hall property and the old Police Station property for parking where it is really needed. There is nothing any more ridiculous than to insist on paving Carmel's only sizable Public Playground. This is a problematical source of continued revenue to the City, in spite of the big, initial sign-up, and is an infringement on the rights of our children, our young adults, and our adults as well.

"Old Carmel" is the magic ingredient that has brought the best of people here as tourists, and provided us with our permanent residents. Our Innkeepers and our business people should be knocking themselves out helping preserve this special quality.

If you think I'm right about this, talk to your city councilmen, or write to them, before it's too late. (The members of the City Council are Steve Grant, Eben Whittlesey, Herbert Blanks, William Sefton and Gunnar Norberg.) The City Council has just taken the first decisive step to turn the north playground at Sunset into an off-street parking lot. Let's try to persuade them to change their minds before the final wrong step is taken.

Yours sincerely,
Wallace E. Doolittle

Gentlemen,

(The following is a letter from Carmel Citizens Committee to the City Council recommending changes in the proposed ordinance Motels in the R-1 District.)

After much study the Board of Directors of the Carmel Citizens Committee recommends the proposed Ordinance be not adopted in its present form, but be reworded as follows:

Sec. 1. Preamble: Omit lines 5 and 6 which read "that it would be inequitable to abate such uses after subsequent purchasers have bought the properties at high prices based upon their use;"

Reason; Unnecessary, and may provide a precedent for others to demand City relief due to high prices.

Sec. 1. Preamble: Omit the words on line 8, "while maintaining the status quo."

Reason: Unnecessary. These words would indicate the City desires to perpetuate motels in the R-1 District, whereas the manifest purpose of the Ordinance is to allow or tolerate such uses, and then only under definite conditions.

Sec. 1. (also Sec. 2 and Sec. 3): Change the effective date from Jan. 1 1967 to the effective date of the Ordinance.

Reason: Avoids possible charge that this is an ex post facto law.

Page 1, Sec. 3 (q): Insert the word certain before the word building.

Reason: The present language permits motels on any and all building sites in the R-1 District, whereas Sec. 1 specifically states that only those sites now occupied by motels may have such use continued.

Page 2, (3) (ii) Site Area: Omit the last sentence reading "Any units added to said motel after the effective date of this Ordinance shall have 1,500 square feet for each unit."

Reason: Defeats the purpose to prohibit further expansion, as emphatically stated twice in Sec. 1. Any expansion of motel use in R-1 would be intolerable.

Page 2. (3) (iii) Parking: In line 6 omit the words "or addition of any lodging units,".

Reason: Same as preceding. No additions should be permitted. These two statements authorizing additional motel units in R-1, compared with Sec. 1., render the Ordinance self contradictory and therefore of doubtful validity.

Very truly

Committee

IRELAND

FINE HORSES AND JAUNTING CARTS

by Mira Talbot

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Collins of Pebble Beach returned recently after leading a hunting tour to Ireland, composed of various friends interested in riding to hounds. Miss Gwenn Graham, of the Del Monte Press Bureau, also accompanied them.

The party stayed at the Dunraven Arms Hotel, Adare, Limerick County, Ireland, where Mira Talbot, who wrote the following article, stayed. Dr. Talbot teaches a University of California at Santa Cruz Extension course in Human Relations at Monterey Peninsula College. She is the winner of the Pine Cone's Travel Contest.

The recent foxhunting trip to Ireland reminded me of my visit to the quaint town of Adare.

As soon as I woke up from the arduous plane trip from New York I looked out the window. I was non-plussed. Was I dreaming? Or had time stood still? I saw a street scene that my sister had described to me a half century ago following her visit to Ireland.

On the winding road of uneven cobblestones there were: pretty girls carrying pails to the open well in the churchyard; old men peddling even older bicycles, and broken down jaunting carts being pulled by weak horses. Set apart by her elegance was a fashionably dressed woman in a very full skirt sitting sidewise in a trap driving throughbred horses.

A rattling noise attracted my attention. Out-sized tin cans of milk were jostling up and down on wooden planks stretched across the wheels of an old cart. Sitting with his feet dangling over one side, the thin driver was unmindful of the fact that his horses were barely moving. Or was he enjoying the leisurely pace in the cool of the evening?

Beyond the street, I saw an impressive gateway flanked by picture postcard thatched cottages. I hurried out to explore beyond the gate. As I walked through the lush dampness, I was completely surrounded by green: strong, earthy greens like blue spruce, and delicate greens like new spring grass. I wallowed in the luxuriousness of nature.

Soon a man riding the finest looking horse I'd ever seen dismounted and, joined me, leading his horse along. He invited me to visit his stud farm. A young boy saluted the gentleman as he peddled past us on his bike. "Lucky boy!", exclaimed my companion. "He is the son of the caretaker who lives on this estate, my castle grounds. Yet I, the owner, can't afford to live here. If the castle were occupied, the taxes would be too high, so I live in a house in town. That's Ireland for you. But I love it." So saying he mounted his horse and rode away.

The next day I was driven to Mt. Shannon to see the former estate of a relative, a large square Georgian house whose rooms were austerely furnished. The premises seemed to be deserted. Finally, we found a middle-aged man and an elderly toothless woman in a dark kitchen on the ground floor. They were huddled close to a coal stove drinking hot tea.

Introducing himself as the son of the former housekeeper, the man explained that the woman was manageress of the big house now used as a youth hostel, a hostel with a marble fireplace in every room.

"We were just talking about the old days," he said. "It was only thirty-five years ago tomorrow that your uncle, Sir James, was kidnapped." Obviously delighted with a new and attentive audience, he continued: "He was returning from the funeral of his wife when his rebellious tenants captured him. They bound him to a stake and threatened to burn him to death if he didn't give them all his property. He signed over everything to them. Untying him, they warned him to be out of Ireland before daybreak."

While packing a few of his belongings, my mother wept. But being a shrewd woman she got a description of the hoodlums from Sir James. As soon as she felt he was a safe distance from Mt. Shannon, she sent this description by one of the loyal tenants to James' brother, a judge. All were arrested the very next day.

"I am surprised," I said, "that the men were arrrested. It was during the Irish rebellion, wasn't it?"

"Yes, but the Irish Republic Army did not approve of plundering, killing, or stealing. They were in favor of dividing up the large land holdings but only by legal process.

"How was the estate disposed of?" I asked.

"The Irish Council divided up most of the land among the townspeople. But they are not working it, nor will they sell it. So it is deteriorating. Not wanting the property allocated to him, Sir James sold his share to a Lady from Dublin. She still has a cottage on the lake and so does the manager of the Shannon airport."

After a long silence, the former housekeeper's son said: "I never thought I would own the place."

Greg Sprung Winner

First place among the instrumentalists from Monterey County who competed in the Young Musicians Auditions at MPC Music Hall last week was won by Greg Sprung, trumpet player, who was graduated from Carmel High School last June. He now attends San Francisco State.

Greg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sprung of Carmel. Mrs. Sprung is a violinist in the Monterey Peninsula Symphony orchestra and they are both pardonably proud.

Greg Stegeman, 16, also on the trumpet, received an honorable mention. Darien Hopkins won a second place spot among the pianists. Darien attends Santa Catalina School for Girls. Kevin Kelly, playing the violin, and Michele Cowan, the piano, were among the nineteen contestants heard.

Mrs. Robert Priestley of Carmel, was chairman of the Junior League committee in charge of the auditions. Others from Carmel on the committee are Mrs. Martin Irwin, Mrs. Thomas White, Mrs. Kirke Erskine and Mrs. David Hill.

New Residents

On Hatton Road in a Spanish house well hidden from the road live Rita and Henri Le Goff who have recently moved here from Toronto, Canada where they ran a small French restaurant called "La Colombe" modeled after one in Paris where Henri received his chef's training.

Rita used to write a column in the Toronto Star in which she expressed the hope that someday she and Henri might open another "La Colombe" (meaning dove) in Carmel-by-the-Sea, where they had visited.

Now that dream is being partially realized except that the location of their French restaurant is at 361 Lighthouse Avenue, Monterey, not far from Cannery Row.

They have taken an old Victorian mansion designed by Harry Greene, according to Arthur Chan of Urban Renewal, who with his wife attended a pre-opening party, and decorated it with old-fashioned French wallpaper. Small upstairs rooms around the widow's walk suitable for private parties, are distinctively decorated.

Everyone present including the French vice-consul, down from San Francisco, the Al Parkers of Carmel Valley, and friends from Canada and England wished the new venture well. Judging from the delectable canapes and champagne peche cocktails, the Peninsula has another choice for fine dining.

Delcina Stevenson Sings for Womans Club

Returning to Carmel after her triumph in last season's Bach Festival, Delcina Stevenson, soprano, will present a Christmas Program for the Carmel Woman's Club on Monday, December 4th, at 2 p.m. in the Clubhouse. Miss Stevenson will be remembered for her role in the Bach "Magnificat" which was hailed by the critics at that time as having brough "a great new soprano to Bach Festival audiences."

Now a member of the San Francisco Opera Company, Miss Stevenson was winner of first place in the 1966 San Francisco Opera Auditions finals, and was awarded the $1,000 James H. Schwabacher Memorial prize.

For the December 4th program Miss Stevenson has selected music appropriate to the Christmas season. She will be presented by Mrs. J. C. Hale, Program Chairman of the Woman's Club. Mrs. Robert Bannister, Club President, will preside at the meeting. Hostesses for the day are Mrs. Alden B. Chace, and Mrs. Wendell M. Coates; and presiding at the tea tables will be Mrs. L. F. Bosshardt, Mrs. Benjamin E. Carleton, Miss Marion Eley and Mrs. Helene Denbo.

Today, there are high-grade corporate bonds available with yields approaching and often exceeding 6%! With some bonds this high interest rate is guaranteed by the issuing corporation for 5, 10 or more years! There have been only a few times in the past 40 years when bonds of this quality have returned so high a yield. The same is true of municipal securities when their tax advantages are taken into consideration.

In addition:

- If bond yields should return to the lower levels of past years, there is an excellent possibility of appreciation in market value.
- As debt obligations of the issuing corporation or municipality, such bonds offer a high degree of safety compared with any other types of investment.

This is a rare opportunity to insulate the rate of earning on your reserve funds against fluctuations in interest rates, and to do it at one of the highest rates available in a quarter of a century.

DEL MONTE PROPERTIES

COUNTRY CLUB GATE

a new concept of carefree living

- Adjacent to Country Club entrance to Forest
- Estimated monthly maintenance cost, including land rental, $68.54
- Priced from $29,900 to $36,900
- Furnished Models open 11-6, 7 days a week
- 2 and 3 bedroom models available

This development of individually sited, handsome Garden Homes, brings the concept of relatively maintenance-free leisure living to buyers on a heavily wooded nine acre site. Pebble Beach Golf Links, Spyglass Hill Golf Course, Cypress Country Club, the Seventeen Mile Drive, world famous Del Monte Lodge, and the beautiful Beach Club are within five miles of the site. Carmel, historic Monterey, Pacific Grove, Carmel Valley, the jet served Monterey County Airport, and the awe inspiring Big Sur country are all within minutes.

This program will appeal to both the "weekenders" or second home buyers and also to the year-round residents who no longer are interested in yard work and exterior maintenance, but who prefer to spend their leisure time enjoying the many pleasures of the Monterey Peninsula.

The homes have been designed to provide large entertaining areas, attractive modern kitchens, luxurious dressing and bath areas, large bedrooms, ample closets, attached two-car garage, fireplaces, and many other fine features.

Country Club Gate will be surrounded by a scenic forest greenbelt in perpetuity and will be a charming, sealed, park like area. The ground is being leased from Del Monte Properties on a long term basis (98 years), and the monthly ground rental per unit will be nominal. All exterior maintenance and garden up-keep will be contracted for and each home owner will pay his share of the cost to the condominium association.

Over the weekend we were walking our dog along the beach when we saw a man scouring the beach with what appeared to be a mine sweeper. But, upon closer investigation, we found he was searching Carmel Beach for coins with a metal detector. He apparently has been doing a good business for he revealed several hands full of nickles, quarters, dimes, and pennies. The fellow claims he has located several "fairly" valuable rings buried in the sand of the Peninsula beaches.

The aging gentleman plans retirement in a few years when he then intends to search "full-time" for buried treasures. But getting back to the beach, he said, with a grin, the most likely spots in which the coins may be found, are those areas where "the boys take the girls . . . they forget all about the money in their pockets."

By the way, the children in this week's Brinton's ad on Page 4 of the Pine Cone are those of Dr. Gene England, director of the Monterey Institute for Speech and Hearing. Mr. England spoke recently at the Carmel Rotary Club.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE RADIO PROGRAM

Part I of two programs entitled "What Are You Giving Your Children?" will be heard this Sunday over radio stations KGO at 7:30, KRML at 7:45 and KDON at 8:45.

We have all heard of, and some of us have had, Pen Pals from foreign lands. But now with the growing popularity of tape recording, there is a non-profit, non-political, non-sectarian club which exchanges tape with those in distant lands. It's very educational and some of our friends have even begun collecting aborigone music as a result of belonging to World Tapes for Education. For further information, write P.O. Box 15703, Dallas, Texas 75215.

For those high school juniors who are interested in entering the United States Air Force Academy upon graduation, it is time to apply for a nomination. Members of Congress have already begun to nominate candidates to the class entering the academy in June, 1968. Act now, because it is difficult to get an appointment and still have time to finish the necessary testing.

League Women Voters Discusses China

Mrs. Bernard (Mary Louise) Van Horne, of Carmel was discussion leader for the Carmel-Carmel Valley unit of the Monterey Peninsula League of Women Voters which met recently at Carmel Valley Manor.

One of the questions asked in the information study of the Chinese question was "What has the U.S. gained as a result of it non-recognition of China policy?" Another was, "Is China actually as belligerent as she sounds?" The history of China which for hundreds of years used to include Tibet, Korea, and portions of the disputed Indian border, was traced.

The whole welfare system was explained and clarified at the general monthly meeting for the whole Peninsula which was a pot luck luncheon at the Monterey Youth Center. Visitors are welcome at all meetings.

FRENCH ALLIANCE CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Alliance Francaise of the Monterey Peninsula will hold its annual Christmas party on Sunday December 17 at the Carmel Valley Inn at 3 p.m. Members of the local Alliance are urged to attend with their families to include children over the age of three and house guests. As is the custom in the past, small inexpensive gifts are exchanged at the bottom of the lovely huge Christmas tree, one for each child and one for each adult. Refreshments are always enjoyed, especially the beautiful "Buche de Noel" (Christmas Yule Log Cake) donated by the Patisserie Boisierre of Carmel.

At a recent dinner, meeting in Carmel, new Alliance officers for the coming year were introduced: Mrs. Jerome Carlson and Mrs. James L. Hathaway, co-presidents; Mrs. Sean Flavin, first vice president; Mrs. Theodore Bradley, second vice president; Mrs. Russell Cadle, secretary; Mrs. Henri Corbat, treasurer; Mrs. Germaine Olivie, scholarship fund treasurer; Mrs. Phyllis Jervey, publicity chairman and distributor of "C'est si Bon" cook books; Mrs. John Dowdakin, special events committee president, assisted by Mrs. John Warren Reese; Mrs. Sean Flavin, "La Jeune Alliance" chairman; Mrs. Claude Courteol and Mrs. Jack Longfellow, hospitality; Mrs. Sorin Isvoran, chief librarian and library committee chairman; Mrs. Leonard McCoy, French conversation teas.

Joyous News

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. White of Carmel have announced the birth of their first grandchild, named Jennifer Anne, born to their daughter Susan, now Mrs. Frank L. Veninga. The baby's father is with a Seattle architectural firm.

Mrs. White left on Monday to see the baby and be helpful when the mother returns from the hospital.

"What do you mean? I don't understand."

"Only a few days ago, the Lady gave me outright the portion of the estate used for grazing pigs. It is all mine now. I never thought I would own the place," he repeated dreamily.

As he showed me around the estate where he had lived his entire life, he reminsced: "Those were the good old days when Sir James had boats on the lake and Lady Jane tended her beautiful rose gardens. She served tea every afternoon in the shade of one of the greatest oak trees in all Europe."

Was that his idea of owning the place, I wondered. Was he to be a gentleman farmer?

As he helped me into the car, he invited me to come again. "I am sorry," he apologized, "I don't have any roses to give you. We don't grow them any more."

CALIFORNIA CHILI CON CARNE

Long before the American West Coast was a reality, Indians combined meat, vegetables and herbs in clay pots over open wood fires. Thus they planted the seed of chili con carne's family tree. There are today a wide variety of descendents. As a change of pace from turkey and ham, make a pre-cinema supper date for the viewing of Explorerama's "Wide, Wide Mexico" at Carmel's Sunset Auditorium this Saturday, Dec. 2 at 8:15 p.m. And serve one of the following personality-plus Mexican dishes. Start off with:

Creamy Avocado Dip

Two cups cut-up ripe avocado, mashed; 1 tbsp. minced onion; 1 clove garlic put through press; ¼ tsp., each, chili powder and salt with a dash of paprika; 1/3 cup mayonnaise; 6 strips bacon, cooked crisp and crumbled; fritos or corn chips.

Combine first six ingredients and blend well. Place in a small glass bowl and cover with mayonnaise spreading over top and sides to keep avocado from turning dark. When ready to serve, mix well and sprinkle top with crumbled bacon. Serve with fritos or corn chips. Makes about 1½ cups dip. Or you can serve the dip in the scooped out half of avocado shell and squeeze some fresh lime juice over top, taste for salt and decorate with cubed pimiento. Cover with Saran after making it as near serving time as possible.

California Chili Con Carne

Filling: 3/4 cup coarsely chopped onion; 2 tbsps. melted butter or margarine; 1½ lbs. ground beef; 1 (1 lb.) can red kidney beans; 1 (10 oz.) whole tomatoes; 1 (6 oz.) can tomato paste; 1 clove garlic, minced; 1 tbsp. chili powder or more to taste; salt and ground pepper to taste.

In large heavy skillet saute onion in butter until just tender and limp. Add meat and brown lightly, breaking with a fork. Add remaining ingredients and blend well. Cover and simmer gently 30 minutes, stirring occasionally. Make a crust from yellow cornmeal according to package directions and line Mexican pottery casserole with the cornmeal mush, bringing it up onto edge of baking dish. Spoon hot filling into this crust; top with rest of cornmeal mixture. Bake in 350F. oven about 30 minutes. Serves 6.

Or if you are in a hurry, serve the brand new frozen prepared chili con carne with beans dinner. The generous servings feature beef and plump tender pinto beans in a specially spiced tomato sauce. Melt-in-your-mouth corn bread and sweet cinnamon applesauce is included in this quickie, inexpensive supper. Give a western twist with a deviled artichoke salad. Cook and drain 1 pkg. (9 oz.) frozen artichoke hearts. Make a marinade of prepared French dressing and 2 tsps. bottled mustard; mix well and pour over artichokes. Chill and serve over shredded lettuce. Double this recipe to serve 6. Mexican beer goes well with this spicy menu and fresh fruit with Monterey Jack cheese makes a complete success out of this popped-into-the-oven frozen entree, a la "Wide, Wide Mexico".

Some of the Christmas holiday decorations to be shown at the "Christmas Collage" bazaar planned by Filia Circle of the Community Church of the Monterey Peninsula on Friday and Saturday, December 1 and 2 from 10 to 4. The new church is less than a mile up Carmel Valley Road. The little boy in the picture is David, the son of Mrs. Richard Avila.

Gifts for all ages, holiday decorations and materials for making them, driftwood, food and candy will be sold.

Filia president is Mrs. Julian von Meier, co-chairmen of this event, Mrs. A. S. Hickey and Mrs. Walter Burde.

The Fair Ladies of All Saints'

The red carpet will be out for guests of the Fair Ladies at the Christmas tea and sale on December 1st. Actually, a strip of red carpet will be laid from the garden gate to the front door at the home of Mrs. Stuart Symington Goode, on North Hatton Road in Carmel, where the Fair Ladies will have their display and sale.

Directly across Hatton Road, in the home of Mrs. Gabriel Burnette, you are invited for tea and a chance to win three hand-made lady dolls, dated about 1850. The three ladies are having tea and doing handwork, much as our modern Fair Ladies.

The Fair Ladies of All Saints Episcopal Church are a social as well as philanthropic group of fifteen talented members, who work all year making exquisite decorations.

Pouring at the tea tables will be Mesdames David Hill, Peter Farmer, Charles A. Trumbly, Dorothy Constans, Charles Dowdell, Charles A. Leachman, Carden Shekell.

Other members of the Fair Ladies, serving as hostesses at the sale and tea are Mesdames: I. Norman Downer, Gladys Marie Jones, Eloise Johnson, Wesley Kergan, Hubert Moses, Richard Murtland, Ralph Parker, Morris Sheldon, Katherine Simard, Benjamin F. Sowell, Oly Lee Spence, George Vaughn, and Stuart Work.

This sale benefits not only All Saints Episcopal Church and its day school, but also community welfare organizations.

THOMAS JEFFERSON
His Religious Views

"Had the doctrines of Jesus been preached always as pure as they came from his lips, the whole civilized world would now have been Christian. I rejoice that in this blessed country of free inquiry and belief, which has surrendered its conscience to neither kings nor priests, the genuine doctrine of only one God is reviving, and I trust that there is not a young man now living in the United States who will not die a Unitarian."

Unitarianism, insisting upon individual freedom of belief and the use of reason in religion, is today attracting more members than ever before.

Here is a religion, unclouded by creed and dogma, that seeks answers to man's problems in the living now. With Jefferson, it is "against every form of tyranny over the mind of man," be it political, social or religious.

YOUTH PROJECT

Advent Candles

A regular production line was set up in All Saints' Episcopal Church kitchen Sunday afternoon. Boys and girls from most of the churches in the area met to dip purple and red advent candles. The candles will be sold to homes wishing to burn them during the three weeks before Christmas.

Youth advisor Miss Jo Brazell, Middle School teacher, was in charge of operations, assisted by Father Lloyd Johnston of All Saints'.

Chris Foley, Sue and Janet Beardsley of Carmel Mission Basilica, Debby Nystrom and Hans Smith of St. Phillips Lutheran Church, Chris Morse and Suzanne Despilais of Community Church, Gail Montgomery and Rupert Loyd of the Presbyterian Church, Dale and Gale Dixon of the Church of the Wayfarer and Mike Clapper of All Saints' are included in the ecumenical Carmel Christian Youth Council.

The group will sing Christmas carols across from Devendorf Plaza, December 15. One purpose of the interdenominational group is to demonstrate "how alike" their respective beliefs are.

Dr. W. Fillmore Gray

For many years minister of the Church of the Wayfarer, Dr. W. Fillmore Gray is now serving the San Ramon Valley Methodist Church in Alamo, Contra Costa County.

Stanton Gray is a senior at Stanford University, while Stephen is serving in the Peace Corps.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

"God the Only Cause and Creator," is the subject of the Sunday Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science churches.

The Responsive Reading includes this verse from Isaiah: "Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power: not one faileth."

REPORTS FROM RLS

By Chandler Meloy

Basketball Opens Today For "Pirates"

With six returning lettermen, the "Pirate" basketball team is looking forward to a strong 1967-68 season. They open play today (Thursday) at Menlo Prep starting at 3:30 p.m. with the Junior Varsity playing at 5:00 p.m.

Coach Dick Zury of the varsity and JV's is looking for a strong showing from George Winters, "high rise" returning forward, with rugged Eric Paulsen, lightening fast Mike Greene, quick-handed Mike Donahoe and steady West Clark. Added to these lettermen will be stars from last year's top Frosh-Soph squad as Art Lara, Eric Haas, Bob Ervin and All-League Jeff Erlandson round out a highly potent offensive unit.

Other Sports News

Stevenson completed its 1967 Water Polo season, with a loss to Lynbrook High by 16-11. John Urist was high point man in the game with six goals to top-off a very fine season along with Pete Cowden, Jim Booth, Jeff Klien, Bob Howard, Jeff Smith and Bruce Burrell, brother of former swim star Tim Burrell. Coach Tip High was well satisfied with the team performance of the year. JV's also closed their season on a losing note. but David Inks continued his high scoring, shooting five goals in the 24-10 loss at Lynbrook.

Quickies: The JV cross country team was fourth in State-quarter finals this year, highest ever for any Stevenson team . . . the Polo team is starting to sharpen up and expect some spring matches this year . . . Jeff Smith as been great as Rally Commission Chairman, both in leading rally-sessions, and in getting together a sign-committee that "just won't stop . . . "

Tusitala: The school newspaper, under the direction of Editor-in-Chief Phil Fleming is available to the public on request. Just drop a note to the school addressed to "Tusitala" at Box 657, Pebble Beach, and circulation editor Don Hauerken will be happy to send you a copy.

YOU can bring Pine Cone Classified ad copy to the office in person: East side of Dolores near 8th.

During the regular Wednesday luncheon meeting at the La Playa Hotel, Rotary President Tom Brown fined (really a donation) Rotarian J. O. Handley $1,000 for the Community Hospital Cobalt Fund. This being the largest fine in the Carmel Rotary Club history, the KSBW-TV camera was on the scene to record the action.

The same day Rotarians Richard Brinton and Norman Winslow were commended for the very good job they did in painting the Boy Scout Troup Building on the S. E. corner of Mission and 8th. Brinton's Carmel Rancho Hardware donated over 20 gallons of Boysen paint and Norman C. Winslow Painting Contractors donated the labor.

Andre Hope Dies Suddenly

Former Pine Cone editor and columnist, Andre Hope died unexpectedly on Tuesday. A professional writer who had written a number of scripts for Hollywood TV productions, her most recent contribution to the Pine Cone was her column Paws for Comment which was her humorous way of showing her deep concern for the proper care of dogs. She was active in SPCA work.

Native of Los Angeles, in 1923, Mrs. Andriana Merritt Hope came with her husband, Roger V. Hope, to Carmel in 1956. She and her husband helped originate the Jazz Festival and she reviewed the performance last summer for the Pine Cone. They traveled a lot and were interested in young people of the community.

Mrs. Hope was also a speaker and for some time had a program "Where There's a Life" on radio station KRML.

Her many interests included art which led to participation in forming the local chapter of the American Federation of Arts, now the Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art Association.

Her mother, Mrs. Lou C. Merritt of Carmel, survives her, as do her sisters, Mrs. Mario M. Ackerman of San Francisco and Mrs. Charles E. Smith of Santa Barbara.

Private services were held yesterday with Paul Mortuary in charge.

DAISY'S SCRAPBOOKS

Someone, somewhere in the Carmel area, has forgotten to return the scrapbooks borrowed from Daisy Bostick. Early settler and developer of Carmel, writer and chronicler, Mrs. Bostick cannot recall to whom she last lent her priceless records, extending back many years. Can someone somewhere, shed some light?

Salaries

fit and budget, is that 10 years ago salaries were less than other similar cities, and now 10 years later we are reaching the top. "This might account for the sharp rise," Bayless said.

Before presenting the Council with his Salary Plan, Dr. Steckler confessed that "We HAVE figures on costs, but we DON'T have the figures on benefit changes."

Dr. Steckler then read his proposal which stressed the value of the cost-benefit analysis, rewarding deserving individuals for meritorious service as well as furthering their education or experience.

The Councilmen immediately questioned HOW to recognize the men who do a good job and what outside extra education warranted raises. Councilman Herb Blanks suggested the possible use of the point system, but Eben Whittlesey asked how he would issue points.

Councilman Gunnar Norberg was in favor of giving points to those persons working for the city who took part in various cultural activities, rather than sought to further their education as called for in the Salary Plan.

Mayor Steve Grant asked Dr. Steckler to work with the department heads and try to come up with some way to make the determination more clear cut.

Routine Planning Meeting

The Planning Commission met yesterday afternoon at which time they accepted the resignation of Commissioner Bill Godwin, Jr. who said he could not effectively act as a commissioner because of itsinterference with his previous business commitments.

The Cherry Developers asked the commission to remove a 15 year old use permit on all but five lots of the Cherry Foundation, so they might subdivide the property. The Cherry Foundation and the Cherry Developers are not related.

Other action of the Commission included the approval of the erection of 23 small parking signs at the Wells Fargo Bank parking lot; the plans for a stained glass window in a leaf motif for the baptistry of the All Saints' Episcopal Church, and the design for the First Church of Christian Science's reading room, display case.

emptied bank accounts, sold cars and sacrificed a year of college to put this show on the road.

Mary Gallwey, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Edgar Gallwey of Carmel, is here to make advance arrangements for housing the group who will stay in many Carmel homes. Her father, who manages a local haberdashery, is the director of Sing-Out Monterey, co-sponsoring.

Mary travels with the group as a teacher for the high school students who must keep up with their studies. She also does public relations work. She spoke to the Carmel Rotary Club last week along with Diana Gill of Johannesburg, South Africa.

The combined four Rotary Clubs of the Peninsula will meet for the first time at the Monterey County Fairgrounds for lunch next Thursday to be entertained by the international Sing-Out cast, according to Don Searle of Monterey Rotary Club.
